

Surrogacy

Options for those using a surrogate

Surrogate Frozen Embryo Transfer Package

- ☐ Pre-treatment screening tests (HIV, Hep B and Hep C)
- ☐ Medical Consultation
- ☐ Nurse Consultation
- ☐ Counselling
- ☐ All ultrasound scans whilst in treatment
- ☐ In-treatment hormone blood tests
- ☐ Early pregnancy scan, where applicable or
- ☐ One Follow up consultation (within 3 months)

£3500

Fees Exclude:

|                                                                                   |              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| Screening for surrogate partner (HIV, Hep B and Hep C)                            | £200         |
| HFEA Fee                                                                          | £100         |
| Medication (approximately)                                                        | £250 - £ 700 |
| Sedation if Required                                                              | £580         |
| Screening for Intended Parents (s) if not completed prior to creation of embryos. |              |
| Chlamydia/Gonorrhea                                                               | £140         |
| Rubella Screen                                                                    | £65          |
| Ultrasound Assessment scan                                                        | £200         |
| Trial embryo transfer                                                             | £300         |